COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 1.

SOME withdrawals of Gold from the Bank of England are reported by Reuter, but so far they are unimportant in amount, and rates of discount in the open market remain without change. Stocks are all unchanged, Consols being still 100¾, French Rentes 108.

In the general produce markets there is no alteration reported.

Cotton in Liverpool continues steady on the spot, but, owing no doubt to the large receipts at the American ports for the two days, quiet and lower to arrive. The sales yesterday were estimated at 10,000 bales, including 400 Surats, and ready prices were unmoved throughout, while Americans to arrive were 1-13d. to 3-64d. lower. In New York yesterday ready Mid Uplands were unchanged at 9 7-16 cents., but futures were 9 points down at 9·68 for March, 9·79 cents for April delivery. There can be little question that the weaker tendency of the market originates with America, as the trade are now buying very steadily, being encouraged thereto by the continued firmness in Manchester, where an exceptionally large business is being done, much larger indeed than is quite apparent on the surface from day to day. Calcutta we know to be buying very freely, and if there is a slight check in the operations for Bombay account at the moment, the contracts previously made have been very heavy, keeping producers well under contract for some months ahead. If practical proof of this were wanted it is to be found in the large scale of shipments for this side. From private sources we learn that the exports of plain Cottons from the United Kingdom for Bombay during the month of November, have been in round figures 60 millions of yards—the largest total on record. This brings up the average of the past three months to 46 millions per month as against 27 millions per mensem as the average of the previous four years. Imports on this scale leave little room for doubt as to the level which stocks had been reduced to in this country, and had the drop in Silver not intervened the demand to supply the deficit would inevitably have been felt at a much earlier date, and cotton would have experienced very different markets from those that have ruled during the past three months. The situation thus disclosed, moreover, throws an altered light on the future of the staple. It makes it distinctly manifest that a 6¾ million American crop and 1¼ million bales from Bombay will all be wanted to keep prices at a moderate level, for it must be remembered that India is not the only country where supplies of piece-goods had been run down to a very low ebb.

The cotton market here to-day has been quiet, and perhaps a trifle easier for future delivery, but there has nevertheless been a larger business doing. Transactions are reported in Bhownugger for April delivery at Rs. 198 for fine and Rs. 186 for good, fully good fair Barsee for March at Rs. 180, and Bengal for early December at Rs. 167 for fully good and Rs. 175 for fine. Quotations, as near as we can give them, are :—

	Good.	Fully Good.	Fine.
Bengals .. Dec. delry	159	164	171
Ouras, ... Jan. ..	186	193

WHEAT comes very dull from home according to private advices, but sellers here keep remarkably firm, the weakness in freights enabling buyers to work in occasionally. Business, however, is limited, particularly in ready stuff, but we hear of some purchases of Ekdani forward at Rs. 3-14 for 85 per cent. contracts. Current ready quotations are :—

	Ready.	Forward.
Liverpool	15	7-6 to 22-6
London	15	7-6 to 21-6

Havre	21-3	21-3 to 25

Marseilles	20 to 21-3
Trieste-Venice	27-6 to 2	27-6 to 28 ex.

EXCHANGE.—The market remains quiet, and practically unaltered. The disposition on the part of the banks is still to harden rates, especially forward, but there are not bills enough about to enable them to make any definite advance. Nor, failing a sharp improvement in Cotton, do we see sufficient business to warrant expectation of any upward movement until after the turn of the year. Buying rates for 3 months' Credits are 1s. 6 15-32d. for all this month, 1s. 6 7-16d. for January, 1s. 6 15-32d. for February and 1s. 6¾d. for March delivery. Ready bills we quote as follows :—

Bank Bills on demand....	1s. 6 3-16d. per rupee.

Do. 3 months' sight ...	1s. 6 9-32d. "

France, 3 months' sight....	1·91 "

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been steady at unchanged values; Fours ready, Rs. 97 11-16; forward, Rs. 97½; Fours-and-a-half ready, Rs. 99¾.

SHARES.—The news of the taking of Mandalay was known in the bazaar in the forenoon, and Bombay-Burmah Trading Co.'s shares were rapidly advanced to Rs. 4,050 buyers. Spinning Mill shares are quiet, and in some cases Rs. 10 lower again. Presses are firm. Berars have improved Rs. 10, Volkarts Rs. 20. Kemp and Co., Ltd., have advanced to Rs. 318. Prince of Wales Fire Insurance have improved to Rs. 1,550.

THE END OF THE BURMAH WAR.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF THEEBAW.

SAFETY OF THE EUROPEANS IN MANDALAY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, DEC. 1.

British troops have entered Mandalay, and the object for which the expedition was undertaken has been attained. There was no fighting or attempt at resistance.

At Ava envoys from the King were received. They offered terms of peace, and as an earnest of the good intentions of Theebaw, and also to show that they were properly accredited agents, delivered Ava into the hands of the British, the Burmese forces garrisoning the various Forts, having previously been instructed to lay down their arms and offer no resistance.

General Prendergast refused to accept the terms proposed, and insisted on an unconditional surrender, otherwise he would take possession of the capital by force.

Theebaw thereupon took the only alternative open to him, and surrendered unconditionally.

All the Europeans and foreigners who were unable to escape from Mandalay before the outbreak of hostilities are safe, Theebaw having kept his promise not to permit them to be molested.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

VICEROY'S CAMP, GWALIOR, DEC. 1.

MESSRS. WALLACE AND Co., the secretaries of the Bombay-Burmah Trading Corporation, yesterday received a telegram from their Rangoon correspondents, announcing that Mandalay had surrendered without fighting, and that the Europeans are believed to be safe.

A good deal of disappointment will be felt at the failure of the effort that has been made to raise a subscription for Mr. Wyndham's Criterion Company to visit Bombay for seven weeks, en route for Australia. Mrs. Digby Willoughby, in whose hands Mr. St. Maur had placed the matter, has been compelled to decline the offer made. The arrangement, on the terms suggested at the meeting, could not in any case have been satisfactorily worked, as Mr. St. Maur required for himself and Mr. Wyndham a guarantee of Rs. 16,000, and at the prices quoted by the committee barely Rs. 13,000 could have been raised. Mrs. Willoughby has explained that, besides giving her own services in her own repertoire, she was prepared to take some risk, so as to give the Bombay public, who are unable to make frequent trips home, an unrivalled treat (as the company are equal to the best French comedy companies), but not to the extent that the arrangement proposed would have involved. Her efforts in the matter, and those of Mr. H. M. Phipson, who has done his best to bring the project to a satisfactory conclusion, nevertheless deserve recognition.

MR. CHARLES DU VAL, who has made for himself a great reputation as a caterer for the public amusement, contemplates a visit to India, and will be in Bombay in the course of the next few weeks. Mr. Du Val's "With a shoe through South Africa" is one of the most popular and amusing books of travel that have been written.

THE Indu Prakash says that a national conference is proposed to be held at Calcutta on December 25 and 27. The Indian Association has taken the lead in the movement, and has invited delegates from the sister associations in other provinces. The delegates will discuss such questions as (1) the reconstitution of Legislative Councils, (2) the native volunteer movement, (3) the increase in military expenditure, (4) the Civil Service question, (5) the separation of the judicial and executive functions, (6) the reconstitution of the police, and such other subjects of national importance as time and circumstances may allow.

MR. RICHARD YATES, of the Abkari Department, Ahmedabad, has published a table on the re-distillation of single-distilled spirit, to 25° u. p, which will prove useful to Abkari contractors and others, this being the recognised Government test. By the use of this table contractors of country-spirit will be in a position to make their liquor daily to the required official test at every charge. The tables are very highly spoken of by those who have used them.

SIR LEPEL GRIFFIN arrived at Agra on Friday, and left again on Saturday, proceeding direct to Gwalior. During his brief stay Sir Lepel was the guest of His Excellency the Viceroy.

MR. KRISHNAMUKHRAM ATMARAM MEHTA, Subordinate Judge of Bulsar, has been appointed to act as Deputy Registrar of the High Court, Appellate Side, in place of Mr. K. C. Bedarkur, appointed judge of the Small Causes Court at Poona. Mr. Mahderao P. Barve acts as Assistant Registrar.

IT appears that during last year 7,550 Mahomedan pilgrims passed through Bombay on their way to the Hedjaz. Of this number 5,402 were from British territory, 783 from native States, and 1,365 from foreign countries. Passports were granted by the Commissioner of Police to 3,743 Indian pilgrims, informal passes to 1,365 foreigners ; and 2,442 Indian subjects who passed through Bombay obtained passports from different British civil and political officers in India.

IN his last report on the police of Bombay Sir Frank Souter draws attention to the improved relations that have been brought about between the two sects of Mahomedans, the Sunnis and the Shiahs. In former years it was necessary to station a strong detachment of military in the city on the occasion of the Mohurrum, and it is only within the last few years that the usual requisition to hold a party of the military in readiness to turn out at a moment's notice has been discontinued. But though a better feeling has certainly been brought about between the two sects, still throughout the ten days of the Mohurrum, and particularly during the last two or three days, the excitement in the city is intense. Mahomedans from all parts are collected here, many of whom are naturally of lawless habits, and all requiring to be treated with consideration, while at the same time the rules and regulations have to be carefully but strictly enforced.

A SPECIAL telegram, published in a Calcutta paper, states that Mr. A. J. Balfour (Conservative) has been successful at Manchester, having polled nearly twice as many votes as his opponent, Professor A. Hopkinson. Five out of the six Conservative candidates at Manchester have been returned by a large majority. Taking the three cities Manchester, Liverpool, and Birmingham together, the Conservatives have secured thirteen seats, the Liberals five, and the Home Rulers one.

IT is a somewhat remarkable fact that a dissolution of Parliament in November is a comparatively rare incident. Since the early part of the sixteenth century there have been only three November dissolutions—namely, in 1558, 1701, and 1868. Of the months in which dissolutions have been most frequent during that period, March stands the first with 15 ; April next with 14 ; July follows with 10 ; January, June, and December with 8 ; February with 7 ; May and September with 5 apiece ; August with 4 ; November comes next with 3 ; and last on the list October figures with the modest number of 2.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to a contemporary regarding the unhealthiness of the Nicobars. He says :—"The men without exception all get fever, many very badly, and most of them are useless the whole time they are down at the Nicobars. The islands, which are so many fever traps, are perfectly useless. They are a dead loss to the Government, and there are quite police enough without the sepoys. If the military authorities only realised the true state of things, the duty of garrisoning the islands would, I am certain, be abandoned."

WRITING on the subject of hospitals for castewomen, the Madras Times quotes some curious instances to show the elasticity of caste. Thus, caste finds it convenient to permit Brahmin travellers to drink buttermilk—though not water—offered by a Sudra ; it permits the drinking of water out of a leathern bottle or mussak on a journey ; out-castes may serve as domestics in the court-yards of Brahmins' houses ; the well from which out-castes have drawn water to save a burning village is purified with a simple and inexpensive ceremony, while pollution caused by a European or well-to-do out-caste would require the expenditure of much money for the performance of elaborate purificatory ceremonies ; roadside wells at some distance from a village may be used by all classes without pollution to it or to any of them ; in sacred tanks all castes may bathe, and, above all, there is no dosham in oushadam ; that is, ceremonial pollution is not communicated through medicine, especially if no water is used in it. The exemption of medicine from pollution is the principle on which high-caste people justify to themselves, if not to others, both the use of Liebig's extractum carnis in rural towns, where they cannot covertly patronize the butcher or where the butcher's meat is bad, and their potations of Exshaw's No. 1, of Treacher's "Glenlivet," and of Thomson and Taylor's "Old Scotch." They take these things as teetotallers sometimes take their strong drink—medicinally.

THERE are some nice tales about Whig Ministers in the new Greville volume. It appears that Lord Palmerston's famous despatch concerning the marriage of the Queen of Spain, which caused innumerable quarrels, and indirectly led to the Revolution of 1848, was brought to Lord John Russell on a Sunday morning for approval, and he sent it back without alteration, because

> He read it over in a hurry . . . If he had not gone to church, and had paid more attention to it, it would not have gone !

In 1841 Mr. Greville states that when the Whigs went out of office, > Palmerston created five new paid attachés. This was done to provide for a Howard, an Elliot, and a Duff, and a son of Sir Augustus Foster, whose provision was made part of the conditions of another job—the retirement of Sir Augustus to make way for Abercromby, Lord Minto's son-in-law—all foul jobbing at the public expense. . . . Eleven thousand pounds had been spent in one year at the Foreign Office in chaises and four conveying messengers to overtake the mails with Palmerston's private letters, which were never ready in time.

It appears that Lord Melbourne was anxious to open the King of Hanover's letters in the post-office, but was overruled.

IT is not generally known that the American General McClellan was a second cousin of Lord Clyde. Upon the death of his lordship's cousin, Miss Alicia Campbell, who expired suddenly and intestate in December, 1863, General McClellan and Mr. Peter Stewart Macliver, now M P. for Plymouth, as "next of kin," claimed and succeeded to the entire fortune of that lady, which comprised a moiety of the large residue of Lord Clyde's estate. His lordship, who sympathized deeply with the Confederate cause, was not aware of his blood-relationship to General McClellan, whose military strategy he unsparingly criticised and condemned. Miss Alicia Campbell was also unacquainted with the two gentlemen who, through her delay in making a will, became her legal heirs. On Christmas Day in 1863 she said to a friend—who was also a bosom-friend of her brother—"It was very wrong of my brother to put off the making of his will until his last illness. The first thing I shall do after the New Year will be to make mine." She did not live to see the New Year.

THE undying enmity which the Achinese entertain towards their Dutch rulers is well illustrated by the following paragraph relating to the capital :—"The tramway trains along the whole S. E. line are daily fired upon, sometimes for hours. On one occasion a Chinese passenger was wounded. Bullets go through the carriages, and hit the locomotive. When passing dangerous spots, passengers have to creep under the benches. One night the Achinese cut off and carried away one hundred yards of telegraph wire. Another night they succeeded in loosening the screws on a portion of the tram rails and undermining them elsewhere, the connecting pieces being taken away."

THE new French Chamber includes 5 bankers, 12 solicitors, 13 notaries, 13 soldiers, 18 engineers, 18 merchants, 15 magistrates, 40 doctors, 120 barristers, 14 professors, 42 journalists, 11 working men, 1 bishop, 2 Protestant pastors, 1 veterinary surgeon, 2 education inspectors, 2 schoolmasters, 3 shipowners, 2 admirals, and 4 ironmasters. According to a classification made by order of M. Allain Targé, 244 new members are pledged to demand the reduction of military service to three years ; 97 to the reduction of military expenses ; 277 protest against colonial conquests ; 178 demand the wind-up of the colonial expeditions ; 54 favour a peace policy ; 7 are for the immediate evacuation of Tongking ; 202 are pledged to agricultural protection ; only 13 are for free-trade ; 158 for the reduction of taxes ; 177 for an income-tax ; and 100 demand the election of the Senate by universal suffrage.

MILITARY NEWS.

OUR Neemuch correspondent writes that a Field Battery of Royal Artillery is expected to arrive there from Mhow to augment the garrison. The Battery, it is believed, will occupy the old Artillery Barracks near the bazaar, now occupied by the depôt of the 1st Light Cavalry, and the staff and Native Cavalry hospitals will be moved to barracks near the Native Infantry hospital, as was the case some ten or twelve years back.

GLANDERS has appeared amongst the horses of the 5th Punjab Cavalry at Mooltan.

THE appointment of Colonel Copland, C. B., 19th Punjab Infantry, to the Umpire Staff, Southern Force, Camp of Exercise, has been cancelled ; also the appointment of Captain Thomson, 25th Punjab Infantry, as Superintendent of Army Signalling.

COLONEL T. R. DAVIDSON, Assistant Adjutant-General, Meerut, and formerly Commandant of the 18th Bengal Cavalry, whose death we announced yesterday, is said to have been a dashing cavalry officer and a thoroughly efficient commandant. He had friends everywhere in the Punjab and Upper India. Joining the 18th Bengal Cavalry in 1860, he was appointed, when still a captain, to the command of the regiment in 1876 ; and was comparatively a young man when the new rule deprived him of an appointment which he was eminently qualified to hold for many years to come. Colonel Davidson had been on active service in the Mutinies, in Afghanistan, and in the Mahsud Wazir country ; and there seemed good reason to hope that the next war in Asia would give him a further opportunity of winning distinction.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE MR. PRESCOTT.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

BROACH, NOV. 30.

AT the general wish of the public of this town, a meeting was convened this evening, at Mr. Byramshaw Cumbata's Hall, for the purpose of collecting funds for the erection of a suitable tomb-stone to the memory of the late Mr. W. B. Prescott. Long before the hour appointed a large number of people gathered in the hall, all the different communities being well represented. Amongst the Europeans present were Messrs. Mackenzie (the Collector), Horsley (the Judge), Maclean (Agent, Bank of Bombay), Bailey (Police Superintendent), and Wilson (Civil Engineer).

On the motion of Mr. S. Pallonjee, seconded by Mr. Chunilal Venilal, the chair was taken by Mr. T. D. Mackenzie, who addressed the meeting to the following effect :—Gentlemen—As you are well aware of the purpose for which we have assembled here, I need not dwell at length on the sad affair. The merits, virtues, and good deeds of our late lamented friend and townsman, W. Bruce Prescott, are so well known to you all that it is useless for me to repeat them. As a personal friend let me assure you, gentlemen, that I always found him a conscientious, honest, brave, and hard-working man ; and those who had the pleasure of knowing him as a friend will fully endorse what I have said. In him I have lost a close personal friend, and the public a painstaking and conscientious officer. This tribute to his memory will be a great consolation to his unhappy widow, and will add materially to the sympathy shown to her in her sad bereavement by the Municipality and the public at large last week.

Mr. Chunilal Venilal gave the substance of Mr. Mackenzie's speech in Gujratee, in a lucid, clear, and effective manner, and the following propositions were carried unanimously :—That the following gentlemen, viz., Messrs. T. D. Mackenzie, Kalianrao Hukoomutrao Desai, Chunilal Venilal, and Dhunjeebhai be appointed a committee to collect subscriptions for the purpose of erecting a suitable tombstone to the memory of the late Mr. Prescott. That subscription be limited to Rs. 10. That Major Heydon, C.S.I., be requested to furnish the committee with a design for a suitable tombstone. That the committee be authorised to take all needful steps to obtain, erect, and keep in good order the tombstone.

The members of the committee having consented to serve, a subscription list was at once circulated in the room, when the sum of Rs. 479-8 was collected from 114 subscribers.

The committee having requested Mr. D. K. Maclean, the manager of the Bank of Bombay Branch at Broach, to open an account in the name of the "Prescott Memorial Fund," that gentleman kindly consented to do so free of charge to the fund.

On the motion of Mr. Mohuulal a short Gujratee poem, composed by Mr. Dhirajram, on the memory of Mr. Prescott, was recited by the author.

On the motion of Mr. Chunilal Venilal, seconded by Mr. Kallianrao, a vote of thanks was accorded to the chairman. On the motion of Mr. Kallianrao, seconded by Mr. Chunilal, a vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Byramsha for the use of his hall.

The proceedings then terminated.

ENGLAND'S RELIGIOUS RESPONSIBILITIES IN INDIA.

IN preaching at St. Thomas's Cathedral on Sunday evening in behalf of missions, the Rev. A. Goldwyer Lewis said that his text (Isaiah xlii, 6 and 7) pourtrayed the vision of Christ's work and commission passing in a series of rapidly changing figures before the Prophet, the scenes forming a stately panorama of gathering light. The work distinctly bequeathed by Christ in the words of the solemn charge "Go make disciples" is to give light and liberty to blind prisoners. This we call missionary work, the noblest conceivable work, which "angels might envy and Christ began," and which it is wrong to speak of patronising. There is mission work among Christians in plenty, but now mission work among heathen has to be kept in mind. What can we do for it who are not technically missionaries ? We have three gifts to offer. First, the gift of intercessory prayer. For this purpose a day has been appointed for special intercession for missions. Then, besides the offering of lip service, there is the offering of means, and we may not have the spectacle of a bankrupt Church hampered in carrying its policy into action. Money, we may remember, is the sinews of war in campaigns, ecclesiastical as well as military. A third gift, in its present practical influence more potent than prayer or alms, is the gift of consistent living on the part of professing Christians. Each man and woman in India is in this sense a missionary. The popular notion that a handful of missionaries in the technical sense of the word are to evangelise India is impossible in all circumstances ; a fortiori when their preaching is contradicted by the lives of professing Christians. Among many other obstacles worthy of attention, one must be noticed, the bitter spirit of controversy that is evident among Christians of different denominations, or of different schools of thought in the same denomination. Non-Christian onlookers are distracted by the din of rival preachers ; and money and men will be wasted so long as this spirit is rampant. In the present circumstances, the preacher said, it is more than ever necessary that we of the Church should bestir ourselves in united efforts, because it is not too much to say that the modern tendency of the State in its policy generally, and especially in its educational policy, is not even to daub our efforts with faint praise, but to ignore them absolutely, which is to oppose them. The education we need for ourselves, the education we have to offer to India, if it is to lead to light and liberty, must rest on a basis broader than that afforded by a merely secular or a merely religious system. The one produces infidels, the other hypocrites. But the State has deliberately and as a principle adopted the merely secular basis ; the apostles of modern secularism affirm the pernicious teaching of Kant when he says :—"All knowledge starts from the senses, goes on from them to the understanding, ends with reason, than which nothing higher is found in us." Such knowledge does not lead to light and liberty. Man's intellectual and spiritual natures are not identical, for one may be in a state of active development, while the other is in a state of moribund degeneration ; and a man may be at one and the same time intellectually a giant and morally and spiritually a dwarf. This general statement the preacher pointed by a particular example, the history of the late frauds in connection with the University Matriculation Examination. Ought we, he asked, to boast or blush for the fruit of an education which results in such a disgraceful issue ? We want a system which shall touch the moral and spiritual nature of the people. And so, with our policy generally, we are a people whose policy is imperialism, whose history is conquest—a grand history it may be, but not the grandest possible, for that is to conquer sin, to give emancipation from its thraldom. We look in vain for a chapter in the history of England's rule in India which shall show the State working hand in hand with the Church in spreading light and giving liberty in the highest sense of the word. The Church is the queen, the privileged, the schoolmistress of the world, but not the preacher of Christ's gospel of light and freedom. She does not pretend to be this. She has given India Western thought and Western culture, but is drawing a veil over India's spiritual vision. But, the preacher concluded, amid the bitter sorrow which every patriot must feel for his country's unfaithfulness there is still much comfort in the thought that the Church is rising to a more adequate conception of her privileges and her responsibilities—in the calm majesty of her conscious truth and power is giving light and freedom to the blind and captives. Strengthen her hands to fight it with your alms, on Wednesday with your prayers. It is for us, the sons and daughters of the Church, who glory in the light and liberty of the Gospel, to do what England has left undone, and in the legitimate exercise of our political privileges to see that she does what she ought in the future.

ROAD-MAKING IN SALSETTE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—It is much to be regretted that the recently sanctioned branch road, from Ghor-bunder public road to the Malvani-bunder, is to be carried through the depopulated hamlet of Orlem (a khotee place, consisting of about ten houses and thirty-five souls, the chief export being domestic fowls and pigs). The original plan of the Collector laid the road from the populous village of Candolim and thence straight to the Malvani-bunder, meeting all the intermediate Government villages. But as the old scheme of the Collector has been entirely left out of consideration, thousands of persons are threatened with great difficulties, and, what is worse, will see that a khotee hamlet is favoured above any Government village.

THE R. M. RAILWAY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The legend that passengers have overtaken on foot, at the next station, trains they had been late for at the preceding one, I have hitherto put down as a traveller's tale, the unaccountably long intervals spent at every petty station notwithstanding. The following facts, however, give colour to the story, and may be of interest to the railway authorities and the public :—My light tonga with ponies, and my horse, left Ahmedabad for Mhow on the 15th November, travelling through the Panch Mahals via Dohud, and thence via Disar. My other tongas and some kit were despatched by rail the next day via Ajmere. The former have just arrived here ; the latter—on which a minimum charge as for 27 maunds is payable, although not half that weight—have not since been heard of, nor can I obtain any information about the goods at the station.

KHOJA BURIAL-GROUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Both the correspondents who write about the Khoja burial-ground are mistaken in stating that arrangements are being made by the Khoja Jamat for the purchase of vacant ground adjoining the present one for the purpose of a burial-place. The fact is that the adjoining ground was not only purchased, but some burials had actually been made therein years ago. Subsequently its use for that purpose was stopped. As regards the closing of the old burial-ground, I quite agree with your correspondents on sanitary grounds ; but the old-established and revered religious custom of the Khojas must be taken into consideration, that they cannot bury their dead in any ground not containing a tomb of one of their saints or pirs. Now, if the authorities make up their mind to put a stop to burials in the old ground, which contains the remains of one of their pirs, they ought to see them provided with a suitable ground elsewhere. There is only one such, namely, that at Mount-road, which contains the remains of the late Aga Khan. I think the authorities can have no objection to granting this site to the Khoja community, in case it is decided to close the cemetery, as Husanabad is an out-of-the-way place.

FAIR-PLAY.

LAWLESSNESS IN THE NATIVE TOWN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Allow me to call attention to the frequency with which assaults and robberies have been committed in the Native Town of late, not in small and narrow streets, but in broad and crowded ones like Kalbadevi and Dhobitalao, and in broad daylight.

I shall mention an incident which occurred the day before yesterday, at the Kalbadevi-road. At about 8 in the evening a sharper, on seeing a man passing by the Kalbadevi-road with a purse in his hand, approached him and threw a handful of snuff in his face. The man, as was natural, got much puzzled. Then his assailant gave him some sharp blows on the hand, and having taken the purse, was instantly off. This is only an example. Instances of this sort occur almost every day. My brother noticed the case reported from a house hard by, but could not assist the poor man in any way. In such cases it is often useless to report the matter to the police. Indeed, the police can do very little, as the powers granted to them by law are very limited. Two persons are fighting on a public street. A policeman is called in. All he is authorized to do, is to separate the belligerents. He cannot take the parties to the superintendent, unless he sees that one or both of them have been seriously wounded. The person assaulted has to go to a police-court and obtain a summons against his assailant. Now, a good deal of time must elapse before this can be done ; and in the meanwhile the offender finds a good opportunity of carrying out his revenge. I believe it is this law (which disqualifies the police from doing anything further than separating the parties) which has been creating all the mischief. An alteration in the procedure would, I think, put a stop to these dangerous as-aults—the present bane of Bombay.—I am, &c.

THE RIOTS AT MALEGAON.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—In your issue of the 13th inst. an "Eye-witness" tried to contradict my statements, so I shall be thankful if you will kindly allow me to examine his letter para. by para.

In para. 2 he doubts the veracity of my statements about the cause of the riots. He denies the possibility of a mere police patel issuing, on his own responsibility, such orders as I mentioned, in a taluka town where there is a European magistrate resident, and where the police inspector, chief constable, and other responsible Government officers were present when the taboot procession started. I again boldly assert that all the same this was the fact, and that the conduct of the Mahomedans can only be accounted for on this supposition. I further assert that your correspondent, who professes to be an eye-witness, is wrong when he says that the police inspector, &c., were present when the taboot procession started. The police inspector was then absent at Munmar, from where he returned after the Mahomedans had come to him for redress, and not to ask redress for their grievances. I am quite sure that Mr. Frost will corroborate my statement.

Next your correspondent says that he can give an emphatic contradiction to para. 3 of my letter, and can say positively that several Hindus were severely wounded. With regard to this, after careful investigation I have learnt that no Hindus were wounded, save a Hindu police peon and two Hindu lads under ten. It is natural that the former should be hurt while performing his duty, while the extreme youth of the other two points to the conclusion that they must have been hurt accidentally. On this point I appeal to the Government doctor of Malegaon city.

Your correspondent does not deny that the Mahomedans have left the town for good, but adds that they did so simply to escape from the clutches of the Mamlatdar. I ask him if he can believe that so large a number as 3,000—exactly half the number of the Mahomedan population—left the town for good merely owing to "a few captures that have been effected since the riot."

I think it is imperatively necessary to depute a European magistrate to inquire into the whole affair.

THE LEPERS' HOME.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I have no doubt good Queen Bess was an excellent Queen in her way, and the founder of a new era, social and political, in the history of England But I have yet to learn that she was the model o. Christian philanthropy and humanity for this nineteenth century. (See Green's History, page 473.) It is just possible that the Queen, herself physically deformed, might have objected to have diseased or deformed ugliness thrust needlessly before her.

But what are the actual facts of the case ? I gather (Green's History, page 384) that the Government of England did what the Government of India might well do, namely, that the "sturdy beggars," as well as the "indigent and disabled poor," should be provided for by the local districts in which each lived, and that industrial homes should be started for those able to work. That Queen and others came under this administration of the so-called 43rd of Elizabeth, we are made aware, because since that period leprosy has almost disappeared from England. India and the natives of India may be said in social matters to be in much the same position and condition in which the poor of Elizabeth's reign were found before the basis of our present pauper administration was laid in her reign.

As regards the need of a home for the segregation of lepers, I can only refer "C. H." to an extract from the Bombay Government Gazette (Part III), March 6, 1884, entitled "Memorandum on the Prevention of Leprosy by the Segregation of the Affected," by Dr. V. Carter, by which it is probable the Government would be guided, if they ventured to deal with the question at all.

As for legislation, restrictive in its tendency, have the two great evils of leprosy and actinism been in a measure expurgated from Europe. I take it that it is the province of Christianity, if it do not legislate, at all events to temper the hand of stern fate and hard chastisement by its leavening principle of love.

Recognising the evils, and teaching people to bow to necessities, the law may well enforce. The home of the leper is the asylum for the insane, and should be surrounded by all that conduces to the happiness of these hopelessly immured by the necessities of their sad condition. Equally so with the industrial homes for the maimed.

I was endeavouring by my letter to strengthen the hands of those who work in the cause of the leper and the poor, by calling attention to the fact that the whole question should come under Government jurisdiction. I have been moved by as Christian a motive as "C. H." I am merely suggesting that what he would insist on within the borders of his own denominational Church, had the power to do so, should be done by the Christian Government of India on a far wider, broader, more far-reaching scale, and with authority.

I regret that I inadvertently robbed some one of his nom de plume in my first letter, and herewith sign myself

GANDY'S AMERICAN COTTON BELTING

TO those having the use and care of machinery it is of the greatest importance to know what is the best belting to use to transmit power. To such and to all the answer is, USE THE GANDY BELT.

It has imitators, and this is the strongest proof possible, that is an article that is worth spending cash on to imitate. If it were a worthless article, or one that had not been VERY SUCCESSFUL, no one would go to the expense and trouble to imitate it. Imitation is the strongest form of flattery, and those who imitate the "GANDY" belt are proclaiming to al belt users, that the GANDY belt is the best that has ever been put before the public.

The GANDY belt has acquired such a deservedly high reputation, that belt users, after having tried all others, come back to Gandy and declare that, notwithstanding the difference in price, they find it to their advantage to use the American Cotton Belt made, only by the inventor and patentee
